

Training

Although members of West Point Rescue are volunteers, all members are required to be certified as Emergency Medical Technicians by the Nebraska Department of Health - the same as EMTs in non-volunteer services.